CARPENTER TO SPEAK ON VIETNAM
AT UNIVERSITY

MISSOULA---

David J. Carpenter, now on leave from his political post in the American Embassy in Saigon, will speak on "Vietnam Today" on June 25 at 4 p.m. in room 11 of the Liberal Arts Building on the University of Montana campus. The lecture is part of a series sponsored by UM Summer Session.

Carpenter is one of two noted lecturers to appear on the UM campus June 25. The other is Drew Pearson, well-known columnist and writer, who will speak at 8 p.m. in the Music Recital Hall.

Carpenter has been working in the political section of the American Embassy in Saigon since August of 1966, where he was responsible for briefing the Ambassador on all major military operations in Vietnam.

Carpenter previously worked for the Foreign Policy Association and Radio Free Europe. He served for four years in World War II and graduated from Harvard in 1949. He has served the State Department since 1957 in Monrovia, Malta, Paris and Saigon.

There is no charge for the lecture which is open to the public.
